

Good morning Reception and happy Thursday! I hope you're all working hard for your grown-ups. We will soon be back together in our classroom!

Phonics

This week in lessons we are starting our phonics! We will learn a new sound every day, look at how we write that sound and find out how that sound is blended with other sounds to make words!

Our first sound is d

I have included a link to a video of a teacher doing a super phonics lesson with our next sound. Remember to practice saying the "handwrite" part too as that helps us to remember how to write our letters.
